This parent support group will be an opportunity for parents/carers to seek advice and strategies from an Autism Specialist teacher, Alison Riddell, and also a chance for parents to share their own experiences with others if they wish.

Alison Riddell

Alison has a mainstream teaching background enabling her to be realistic about which strategies can be incorporated effectively within mainstream schools. She has taught all ages from pre-schoolers to A level in a number of Local Authorities. Alison worked for 12½ years as part of Worcestershire's Autism/CCD team, where she assessed children and young people throughout the county and offered strategies and advice. She also delivered training to a wide range of professionals, schools and parents. Alison is now working independently and is keen to share her knowledge and expertise at this newly formed support group for Worcester city schools.

Dates for the next support group meetings:

Tuesday 7th March 2017

Time: 9.15 -11.00 am

Please telephone the school if you are attending, so we have an idea of numbers.
